Realities For Children

Annual Distribution Participation Information

With the support from Business Members, Volunteers, Community Members and local Businesses, Realities For Children ANNUALLY provides new toys, new winter coats, and restaurant & clothing gift cards to more than 2,000 local children who have faced abuse, neglect or are at-risk.

For generous Local Businesses interested in participating as a collection location, Realities For Children will provide:

- Red bin, printed sign and electronic signage for your use.
- Weekly mention of your business (during campaign) on our social media platforms (7,700+ followers).
- Business name promotion in our bi-monthly Real News electronic newsletter (9,000+ subscribers).
- Business name highlighting your participation in THREE ads in the Coloradoan (need commitment by 11/4/21 to be included in the ad).
- Your Business name and website link on our website, RealitiesForChildren.com.

For generous Local Businesses interested in participating, we request the following from the participants:

- Pick up and delivery of the red bin and printed sign on designated days and times (or use of a similar receptacle provided by you and approved by Realities For Children).
- Commitment to post your participation weekly on your social media sites.
- Commitment to email your supporters/customers informing them of your participation.
- Commitment to collect at least one dozen items or gift cards per participating location.
